RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

The information included in this section supplements the information about Mexico corresponding to the headings below that is contained in Exhibit D to Mexico's annual report on Form 18-K, as amended, for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008. To the extent that the information included in this section differs from the information set forth in the annual report, you should rely on the information in this section.

The Economy

Gross Domestic Product

According to preliminary figures, Mexico's gross domestic product (GDP) decreased by 8.1% in real terms during the first nine months of 2009 as compared with the same period of 2008. The utilities sector decreased by 0.5%; the construction sector by 7.5%; the manufacturing sector by 13.4%; the wholesale and retail trade sector by 18.1%; the transportation and warehousing sector by 10.4%; the finance and insurance sector by 5.7%; the real estate, rental and leasing sector by 6.2%; professional, scientific and technical services by 4.6%; management of companies and enterprises by 1.4%; administrative support, waste management and remediation services by 5.1%; education services by 5.8%; arts, entertainment and recreation by 3.1%; accommodation and food services by 11.1% and other services (except public administration) by 2.8%, each in real terms as compared to the first nine months of 2008. However, the agriculture, forestry, fishing and hunting sector grew by 0.9%; the mining sector by 0.5%; the information sector by 3.2%; health care and social assistance by 0.4% and public administration by 4.4%, each in real terms as compared to the first nine months of 2008.

Prices and Wages

For 2009, inflation (as measured by the change in the national consumer price index) was 3.6%, 3.0 percentage points lower than for 2008.

Interest Rates

During 2009, interest rates on 28-day Cetes averaged 5.4% and interest rates on 91-day Cetes averaged 5.5%, as compared to average rates on 28-day Cetes of 7.7% and on 91-day Cetes of 7.9% during 2008. On January 7, 2010, the 28-day Cetes rate was 4.5% and the 91-day Cetes rate was 4.7%.

Principal Sectors of the Economy

Petroleum and Petrochemicals

The following is based on the unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements of PEMEX. "PEMEX" refers to Petróleos Mexicanos, its four subsidiary entities, Pemex-Exploración y Producción (Pemex-Exploration and Production), Pemex-Refinación (Pemex-Refining), Pemex-Gas y Petroquímica Básica (Pemex-Gas and Basic Petrochemicals) and Pemex-Petroquímica (Pemex-Petrochemicals), and their subsidiary companies. Total sales revenues decreased by 26.8% during the first nine months of 2009, to Ps. 779.4 billion, from Ps. 1,064.9 billion in the first nine months of 2008. This decrease in total sales was due to lower crude oil prices and lower volume of crude oil exports.

Table of Contents

Domestic sales decreased by 16.4%, to Ps. 434.0 billion in the first nine months of 2009, from Ps. 519.4 billion in the first nine months of 2008, primarily due to a decrease in the prices and volume of natural gas, petroleum products and petrochemicals. Total export sales (with dollar-denominated export revenues translated to pesos at the exchange rate on the date on which the export sale was made) decreased by 37.0%, to Ps. 341.4 billion in the first nine months of 2009, from Ps. 541.9 billion in the first nine months of 2008, primarily due to decreases in crude oil prices and the volume of crude oil exports.

In the first nine months of 2009, PEMEX reported a net loss of Ps. 29.5 billion on Ps. 779.4 billion in total sales revenues, as compared with net income of Ps. 5.6 billion on Ps. 1,064.9 billion in total sales revenues in the first nine months of 2008. This decrease in net income in the first nine months of 2009 as compared to the first nine months of 2008 resulted primarily from lower crude oil prices, decreased volume of crude oil exports and a lower Impuesto Especial sobre Producción y Servicios (Special Tax on Production and Services, or IEPS tax) credit.

Financial System

Central Bank and Monetary Policy

For the first eleven months of 2009, the M1 money supply increased by 6.9% in real terms, as compared with the same period of 2008. This increase was driven by higher amounts of bills and coins held by the public and checking account deposits. The amount of bills and coins held by the public at November 30, 2009 was 5.7% greater in real terms than at November 30, 2008, while the aggregate amount of checking account deposits denominated in pesos at November 30, 2009 was 6.1% greater in real terms than the amount of checking account deposits at November 30, 2008.

At November 30, 2009, financial savings were 8.6% greater in real terms than financial savings at November 30, 2008. Savings generated by Mexican residents were 8.5% greater in real terms and savings generated by non-residents were 10.5% greater in real terms than their respective levels at November 30, 2008.

At December 31, 2009, the monetary base totaled Ps. 632.0 billion, a 9.2% increase in nominal terms, from the level of Ps. 577.5 billion at December 31, 2008. At January 7, 2010, the monetary base totaled Ps. 615.8 billion, a 2.6% nominal decrease from the level of Ps. 632.0 billion at December 31, 2009.

In October 2007, Banco de México announced that as of January 21, 2008, it would use the overnight funding rate, rather than its other monetary policy instrument, the “corto” or “short,” as its primary monetary policy instrument. The minimum overnight funding rate was reduced to 7.75% on January 16, 2009, to 7.50% on February 20, 2009, to 6.75% on March 20, 2009, to 6.00% on April 17, 2009, to 5.25% on May 15, 2009, to 4.75% on June 19, 2009 and to 4.50% on July 17, 2009.

On December 9, 2009, President Felipe Calderón Hinojosa appointed Ernesto J. Cordero Arroyo as Secretary of Finance and Public Credit. On December 28, 2009, President Calderón appointed Dr. Agustín Guillermo Carstens Carstens as Governor of Banco de México for a six-year term that commenced January 1, 2010.

Table of Contents

At December 31, 2009, Mexico's international reserves totaled U.S. $90.8 billion, an increase of U.S. $5.4 billion as compared to international reserves at December 31, 2008. The net international assets of Banco de México totaled U.S. $99.9 billion at December 31, 2009, an increase of U.S. $4.6 billion as compared to net international assets at December 31, 2008.

On October 8, 2008, Banco de México announced a new policy under which it would conduct an auction of U.S. $400 million on any day during which the depreciation of the peso exceeded 2%, as compared to the previous day's exchange rate. On March 5, 2009, Banco de México announced that it was reducing the value of these auctions to U.S. $300 million. In addition, Banco de México announced that beginning on March 9, 2009, it would auction U.S. $100 million each day through additional auctions. These additional auctions would be conducted by Banco de México irrespective of whether the peso had depreciated as compared to the previous day's exchange rate. On May 29, 2009, Banco de México announced that the value of the depreciation-contingent auctions would be reduced to U.S. $250 million each day and that, beginning on June 9, 2009, the value of the daily additional auctions would be reduced to U.S. $50 million. On September 1, 2009, Banco de México announced that the daily additional auctions would be suspended as from October 1, 2009; however, depreciation contingent auctions would remain unchanged. In addition, Banco de México maintains the ability to conduct special auctions whenever they are required by market conditions. From October 9, 2008 through October 1, 2009, Mexico sold an aggregate of U.S. $10.3 billion through the special daily auctions. Additionally, from October 9, 2008 through January 8, 2010, Mexico sold an aggregate of U.S. $8.3 billion through the depreciation-contingent auctions.

Direct Foreign Investment in Mexico

According to preliminary figures, during the first nine months of 2009, direct foreign investment in Mexico recorded with the Registro Nacional de Inversiones Extranjeras (National Foreign Investment Registry) totaled approximately U.S. $9.8 billion as compared with U.S. $15.6 billion during the same period of 2008. Of that, 38.9% has been channeled to manufacturing, 22.9% to financial services, 16.2% to commerce, 1.2% to transportation and communications, 2.4% to mining, 1.9% to construction and 16.2% to other services. By country of origin, during the first nine months of 2009, 53.3% came from the United States (not including Puerto Rico), 14.8% from the Netherlands, 11.9% from Puerto Rico, 5.8% from Canada, 4.4% from the United Kingdom, 4.2% from Spain and 5.6% from other countries.

Exchange Controls and Foreign Exchange Rates

Public Finance

Revenues and Expenditures

According to preliminary figures, during the first nine months of 2009, the public sector overall balance registered a deficit of Ps. 122.1 billion. Excluding physical investment by PEMEX and including the Government's expected revenues from oil price hedges in the first nine months of 2009, the public sector balance registered a surplus of Ps. 107.8 billion, 42.8% lower in real terms than the Ps. 178.3 billion surplus registered for the same period of 2008. The primary surplus, defined as total public sector revenues less expenditures other than interest payments on public debt, was Ps. 284.3 billion for the first nine months of 2009, 20.3% lower in real terms than for the first nine months of 2008, once again excluding physical investment by PEMEX and including the Government's expected revenues from oil price hedges.

Table of Contents

According to preliminary figures, during the first nine months of 2009, public sector budgetary revenues decreased by 8.7% in real terms as compared to the same period of 2008, without taking into account the expected revenues from the Government's oil price hedges. Oil revenues decreased by 24.4% in real terms and non-oil tax revenues increased by 0.4% in real terms. Non-tax revenues, excluding those from PEMEX, as a percentage of total public sector budgetary revenues increased to approximately 11.7% in the first nine months of 2009 from approximately 3.1% in the first nine months of 2008.

According to preliminary figures, during the first nine months of 2009, public sector budgetary expenditures increased by 4.2% in real terms as compared to public sector budgetary expenditures during the same period of 2008. Excluding physical investment by PEMEX, public sector budgetary expenditures decreased by 1.9% as compared to the first nine months of 2008. In the first nine months of 2009, public sector financing costs increased by 14.1% in real terms as compared with the same period of 2008.

2010 Budget and Fiscal Package

On September 8, 2009, the Executive submitted to Congress the proposal for the Federal Annual Revenue Law for 2010 and the Federal Expenditure Decree for 2010.

On November 5, 2009, the Federal Annual Revenue Law for 2010 was published in the Diario Oficial de la Federación (Official Gazette of the Federation) and became effective on January 1, 2010. On November 17, 2009, the Federal Expenditure Decree for 2010 (together with the Federal Annual Revenue Law for 2010, the "2010 Budget") was published in the Official Gazette of the Federation and became effective on January 1, 2010.

The Economic Package approved by Congress for 2010 includes a budgetary deficit (excluding PEMEX physical investment) of Ps. 90 billion (0.7% of GDP). The total deficit approved (including PEMEX physical investment) is equivalent to 2.8% of GDP.

The 2010 Revenue Law approved by Congress anticipates public sector budgetary revenues totaling Ps. 2,797 billion and public expenditures totaling Ps. 2,887 billion. The measures approved by Congress are expected to result in an estimated increase of non-oil revenues in the amount of Ps. 136.4 billion, or 1.1% of GDP.

The 2010 Budget allows the Government to increase expenditures in the following areas and by the following amounts, as compared with the 2009 Budget: education, 2.5%; social security, 18.4%; social assistance, 17.0%; transportation and communications, 3.7%; and sustainable development, 14.9%.

(2) 2009 Budget figures represent budgetary estimates, based on the economic assumptions contained in the General Economic Policy Guidelines for 2009 published in November 2008 and in the Programa Económico 2009 (Economic Program 2009) published in November 2008, and do not reflect actual results for the year or the adverse global and domestic financial and economic environment in 2009.

(3) The Mexican Government entered into agreements to hedge oil prices in order to isolate the 2009 and 2010 Budgets from the effect of reductions in the price of oil with respect to the level that was assumed in the Federal Revenue Law for each year. The annual average price guaranteed by these hedges was $70.00 in the fiscal year 2009 and $57.00 in the fiscal year 2010. Therefore, the approved expenditures level should not be affected if a lower Mexican oil mix price than the one assumed in each budget were observed. The total amount hedged in 2009 was 330 million barrels, which is the amount of net oil exports contemplated in the Economic Program 2009. The aggregate cost of hedging the oil revenues was U.S. $1.5 billion in 2009 and U.S. $1.2 billion in 2010.

(4) Excluding physical PEMEX investment.

(5) 2010 Budget figures represent budgetary estimates, based on the economic assumptions contained in the Criterios Generales de Política Económica (General Economic Policy Guidelines) for 2010 published in November 2009 and in the Programa Económico 2010 (Economic Program 2010) published in November 2009.

Public Debt

Internal Public Debt

Internal debt of the Government includes only the internal portion of indebtedness incurred directly by the Mexican Government, Banco de México's general account balance (which was positive at September 30, 2009, indicating monies owed to the Mexican Government) and the assets of the Fondo del Sistema de Ahorro Para el Retiro (the Retirement Savings System Fund). Net internal debt includes Cetes and other securities sold to the public in primary auctions, but does not include debt allocated to Banco de México for its use in regulating liquidity (Regulación Monetaria). Internal debt does not include the debt of the Instituto para la Protección del Ahorro Bancario (Bank Savings Protection Institute, or IPAB) or the debt of budget-controlled or administratively controlled agencies.

According to preliminary figures, at September 30, 2009, the net internal debt of the Government totaled Ps. 2,465.5 billion, as compared to Ps. 2,332.7 billion outstanding at December 31, 2008. At September 30, 2009, the gross internal debt of the Government totaled Ps. 2,748.9 billion, as compared to Ps. 2,401.3 billion of gross internal debt at December 31, 2008. Of the total gross internal debt of the Government at September 30, 2009, Ps. 395.7 billion represented short-term debt and Ps. 2,353.3 billion represented long-term debt, as compared to Ps. 281.3 billion of short-term debt and Ps. 2,120.1 billion of long-term debt at December 31, 2008. The average maturity of the Government's internal debt decreased by 0.29 years during the first nine months of 2009, from 6.36 years at December 31, 2008 to 6.07 years at September 30, 2009. The Government's financing costs on internal debt totaled Ps. 99.6 billion for the first nine months of 2009 (equivalent to 1.2% of GDP), 7.8% greater, in nominal terms (and 2 percentage points of GDP greater), as compared to the same period of 2008.

External Public Debt

The total external debt of the public sector consists of the external portion of the long-term indebtedness incurred directly by the Mexican Government, the external long-term indebtedness incurred by budget-controlled agencies, the external long-term indebtedness incurred directly or guaranteed by administratively controlled agencies (including but not limited to national development banks) and the short-term external debt of the public sector. Private sector debt guaranteed by the Mexican Government is not included unless and until the Mexican Government is called upon to make payment under the applicable guaranty. External public debt does not include, among other things, repurchase obligations of Banco de México with the IMF or the debt of the IPAB. For purposes hereof, long-term debt includes all debt with maturities of one year or more from the date of issue.

According to preliminary figures, outstanding public sector gross external debt increased by approximately U.S. $34.2 billion during the first nine months of 2009, from U.S. $56.9 billion at December 31, 2008, to U.S. $91.1 billion at September 30, 2009, primarily due to the recognition as public sector debt of certain Proyectos de Infraestructura Productiva de Largo Plazo (long-term productive infrastructure projects, or PIDIREGAS) obligations, which were previously treated as off-balance sheet liabilities. Of this amount, U.S. $89.9 billion represented long-term debt and U.S. $1.2 billion represented short-term debt.

According to preliminary figures, at September 30, 2009, commercial banks held approximately 21.9% of Mexico's total public sector external debt, multilateral and bilateral creditors (excluding the IMF) held approximately 15.7%, bondholders held approximately 61.5% and other creditors held the remaining 0.9%.

According to preliminary figures, total public debt (gross external debt plus net internal debt) at September 30, 2009 represented approximately 31.2% of nominal GDP, 6.1 percentage points higher than at December 31, 2008.

- (1) External debt denominated in foreign currencies other than dollars has been translated into dollars at exchange rates as of each of the dates indicated. External public debt does not include (a) repurchase obligations of Banco de México with the IMF (none of these were outstanding at September 30, 2009), (b) external borrowings by the public sector after September 30, 2009 or (c) loans from the Commodity Credit Corporation to public sector Mexican banks. External debt is presented herein on a “gross” basis, and includes external obligations of the public sector at their full outstanding face or principal amount. For certain informational and statistical purposes, Mexico sometimes reports its external public sector debt on a “net” or “economic” basis, which is calculated as the gross debt net of certain financial assets held abroad. These financial assets include the value of principal and interest collateral on restructured debt and Mexican public sector external debt that is held by public sector entities but that has not been canceled.
- (2) Includes debt of development banks and other administratively controlled agencies whose finances are consolidated with those of the Mexican Government.
- (3) Adjusted to reflect the effect of currency swaps.

Recent Securities Offering

On December 11, 2009, Mexico issued Japanese yen 150 billion of notes guaranteed by the Japan Bank for International Cooperation (JBIC). These bonds were placed in the Japanese private market, bear interest at 2.22% per year and have a tenor of 10 years.

Rating Agency Considerations

On August 5, 2009, Moody's affirmed its rating of Mexico's foreign currency debt at Baa1, with a stable outlook. On November 23, 2009, Fitch Ratings downgraded Mexico's foreign currency IDR to 'BBB' from 'BBB+' and local currency IDR to 'BBB+' from 'A-', with a stable outlook. On December 14, 2009, Standard & Poor's (S&P) downgraded Mexico's foreign currency IDR to 'BBB' from 'BBB+' and local currency IDR to 'A' from 'A+', with a stable outlook.

On December 14, 2009, S&P revised PEMEX's ratings outlook from negative to stable, downgraded PEMEX's long-term foreign currency credit rating from BBB+ to BBB and upgraded PEMEX's long-term local currency credit rating from A- to A. In addition, S&P removed PEMEX from its credit watch list of companies with the potential for developing positive credit implications or improvements in ratings. These revisions from S&P follow its June 2009 publication of a new methodology for rating government-related entities, such as PEMEX. On December 23, 2009, Moody's affirmed its Baa1 rating of PEMEX's long-term foreign currency denominated debt.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The managers severally have agreed to purchase, and Mexico has agreed to sell to them, the principal amount of the notes listed opposite their names below. The terms agreement, dated as of January 11, 2010, between Mexico and the managers provides the terms and conditions that govern this purchase.

Managers	Principal Amount of Notes
Banc of America Securities LLC	U.S. $ 500,000,000
Citigroup Global Markets Inc.	500,000,000
Total	U.S. $ 1,000,000,000

Banc of America Securities LLC and Citigroup Global Markets Inc. are acting as joint lead managers and joint bookrunners in connection with the offering of the notes.

The managers plan to offer the notes directly to the public at the price set forth on the cover page of this pricing supplement. After the initial offering of the notes, the managers may vary the offering price and other selling terms.

Notes sold by the managers to the public will initially be offered at the initial offering price set forth on the cover of this pricing supplement. Any notes sold by the managers to securities dealers may be sold at a discount from the initial public offering price of up to 0.15% of the principal amount of such notes. Any such securities dealers may resell any notes purchased from the managers to certain other brokers or dealers at a discount from the initial public offering price of up to 0.10% of the principal amount of such notes. If all the notes are not sold at the initial public offering price, the managers may change the offering price and the other selling terms.

The managers are offering the notes, subject to prior sale, when, as and if issued to and accepted by them, subject to approval of the validity of the notes by counsel and other conditions contained in the terms agreement, such as the receipt by the managers of certificates of officials and legal opinions. The managers reserve the right to withdraw, cancel or modify offers to the public and to reject orders in whole or in part.

In order to facilitate the offering of the notes, the joint lead managers (or, in the United Kingdom, an affiliate of Banc of America Securities LLC) may engage in transactions that stabilize, maintain or affect the price of the notes. In particular, the joint lead managers may:

- over-allot in connection with the offering (i.e., apportion to dealers more of the notes than the managers have), creating a short position in the notes for their own accounts,
- bid for and purchase notes in the open market to cover over-allotments or to stabilize the price of the notes, or
- if the managers repurchase previously distributed notes, reclaim selling concessions which they gave to dealers when they sold the notes.

Table of Contents

Any of these activities may stabilize or maintain the market price of the notes above independent market levels. The joint lead managers are not required to engage in these activities, but, if they do, they may discontinue them at any time.

The managers and their affiliates have engaged in and may in the future engage in other transactions with and perform services for Mexico for which they received or will receive customary fees and expenses. These transactions and services are carried out in the ordinary course of business.

The notes are being offered for sale in jurisdictions in the North America, Europe and Asia where it is legal to make such offers. The managers have agreed that they will not offer or sell the notes, or distribute or publish any document or information relating to the notes, in any place without complying with the applicable laws and regulations of that place. If you receive this pricing supplement and the related prospectus supplement and prospectus, then you must comply with the applicable laws and regulations of the place where you (a) purchase, offer, sell or deliver the notes or (b) possess, distribute or publish any offering material relating to the notes. Your compliance with these laws and regulations will be at your own expense.

European Economic Area

In relation to each Member State of the European Economic Area (Iceland, Norway and Liechtenstein in addition to the member states of the European Union) which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a “Relevant Member State”), each manager has represented and agreed that with effect from and including the date on which the Prospectus Directive is implemented in that Relevant Member State (the “Relevant Implementation Date”) it has not made and will not make an offer of notes to the public in that Relevant Member State prior to the publication of a prospectus in relation to the notes which has been approved by the competent authority in that Relevant Member State or, where appropriate, approved in another Relevant Member State and notified to the competent authority in that Relevant Member State, all in accordance with the Prospectus Directive, except that it may, with effect from and including the Relevant Implementation Date, make an offer of notes to the public in that Relevant Member State at any time:

(a) to legal entities which are authorized or regulated to operate in the financial markets or, if not so authorized or regulated, whose corporate purpose is solely to invest in securities;

(b) to any legal entity which has two or more of (1) an average of at least 250 employees during the last financial year; (2) a total balance sheet of more than €43,000,000 and (3) an annual net turnover of more than €50,000,000, as shown in its last annual or consolidated accounts; or

(c) in any other circumstances which do not require the publication by Mexico of a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an “offer of notes to the public” in relation to any notes in any Relevant Member state means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the notes, as the same may be varied in that Member State by any measure implementing the Prospectus Directive in that Member State and the expression “Prospectus Directive” means Directive 2003/71/EC and includes any relevant implementing measure in each Relevant Member state.

United Kingdom

Each manager has represented and agreed that:

1. it has only communicated or caused to be communicated and will only communicate or cause to be communicated an invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of Section 21 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (“FSMA”)) received by it in connection with the issue or sale of the notes in circumstances in which Section 21(1) of the FSMA does not apply to Mexico; and
2. it has complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the FSMA with respect to anything done by it in relation to the notes in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom.

Italy

Each manager has acknowledged and agreed that no prospectus has been nor will be published in Italy in connection with the offering of the notes and that such offering has not been cleared by the Italian Securities Exchange Commission (Commissione Nazionale per le Società e la Borsa, the “CONSOB”) pursuant to Italian securities legislation and, accordingly, has represented and agreed that the notes may not and will not be offered, sold or delivered, nor may or will copies of this pricing supplement, the accompanying prospectus supplement or prospectus or any other documents relating to the notes be distributed in Italy, except (i) to professional investors (operatori qualificati), as defined in Article 31, second paragraph, of CONSOB Regulation No. 11522 of July 1, 1998, as amended (“Regulation No. 11522”), or (ii) in other circumstances which are exempted from the rules governing offers of securities to the public pursuant to Article 100 of Legislative Decree No. 58 of February 24, 1998 (“Italian Finance Law”) and Article 33, first paragraph, of CONSOB Regulation No. 11971 of May 14, 1999, as amended.

Each manager has represented and agreed that any offer, sale or delivery of the notes or distribution of copies of this pricing supplement, the accompanying prospectus supplement or prospectus or any other document relating to the notes in Italy may and will be effected in accordance with all Italian securities, tax, exchange control and other applicable laws and regulations, and, in particular, will be: (i) made by an investment firm, bank or financial intermediary permitted to conduct such activities in Italy in accordance with the Italian Finance Law, Legislative Decree No. 385 of September 1, 1993, as amended (“Italian Banking Law”), Regulation No. 11522, and any other applicable laws and regulations; (ii) in compliance with Article 129 of the Italian Banking Law and the implementing guidelines of the Bank of Italy; and (iii) in compliance with any other applicable notification requirement or limitation which may be imposed by CONSOB or the Bank of Italy.

Any investor purchasing the notes in the offering is solely responsible for ensuring that any offer or resale of the notes it purchased in the offering occurs in compliance with applicable Italian laws and regulations.

This pricing supplement, the accompanying prospectus supplement and prospectus and the information contained therein are intended only for the use of its recipient and, unless in circumstances which are exempted from the rules governing offers of securities to the public pursuant to Article 100 of the Italian Finance Law and Article 33, first paragraph, of CONSOB Regulation No. 11971 of May 14, 1999, as amended, is not to be distributed, for any reason, to any third party resident or located in Italy. No person resident or located in Italy other than the original recipients of this document may rely on it or its content.

Italy has only partially implemented the Prospectus Directive. Accordingly, the provisions under the heading “European Economic Area” above shall apply with respect to Italy only to the extent that the relevant provisions of the Prospectus Directive have already been implemented in Italy.

Insofar as the requirements above are based on laws which are superseded at any time pursuant to the implementation of the Prospectus Directive in Italy, such requirements shall be replaced by the applicable requirements under the relevant implementing measures of the Prospectus Directive in Italy.

Hong Kong

The notes may not be offered or sold by means of any document other than to persons whose ordinary business is to buy or sell shares or debentures, whether as principal or agent, or in circumstances which do not constitute an offer to the public within the meaning of the Companies Ordinance (Cap. 32) of Hong Kong, and no advertisement, invitation or document relating to the notes may be issued, whether in Hong Kong or elsewhere, which is directed at, or the contents of which are likely to be accessed or read by, the public in Hong Kong (except if permitted to do so under the securities laws of Hong Kong) other than with respect to notes which are or are intended to be disposed of only to persons outside Hong Kong or only to “professional investors” within the meaning of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571) of Hong Kong and any rules made thereunder.

Japan

The notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities and Exchange Law of Japan (the Securities and Exchange Law) and each underwriter has agreed that it will not offer or sell any notes, directly or indirectly, in Japan or to, or for the benefit of, any resident of Japan (which term as used herein means any person resident in Japan, including any corporation or other entity organized under the laws of Japan), or to others for re-offering or resale, directly or indirectly, in Japan or to a resident of Japan, except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of, and otherwise in compliance with, the Securities and Exchange Law and any other applicable laws, regulations and ministerial guidelines of Japan.

Singapore

This pricing supplement has not been registered as a prospectus with the Monetary Authority of Singapore. Accordingly, this pricing supplement and any other document or material in connection with the offer or sale, or invitation for subscription or purchase, of the notes may not be circulated or distributed, nor may the notes be offered or sold, or be made the subject of an invitation for subscription or purchase, whether directly or indirectly, to persons in Singapore other than (i) to an institutional investor under Section 274 of the Securities and Futures Act, Chapter 289 of Singapore (the “SFA”), (ii) to a relevant person, or any person pursuant to Section 275(1A), and in accordance with the conditions, specified in Section 275 of the SFA or (iii) otherwise pursuant to, and in accordance with the conditions of, any other applicable provision of the SFA.

Where the notes are subscribed or purchased under Section 275 by a relevant person which is: (a) a corporation (which is not an accredited investor) the sole business of which is to hold investments and the entire share capital of which is owned by one or more individuals, each of whom is an accredited investor; or (b) a trust (where the trustee is not an accredited investor) whose sole purpose is to hold investments and each beneficiary is an accredited investor, shares, debentures and units of shares and debentures of that corporation or the beneficiaries’ rights and interest in that trust shall not be transferable for 6 months after that corporation or that trust has acquired the notes under Section 275 except: (1) to an institutional investor under Section 274 of the SFA or to a relevant person, or any person pursuant to Section 275(1A), and in accordance with the conditions, specified in Section 275 of the SFA; (2) where no consideration is given for the transfer; or (3) by operation of law.

Mexico

The notes have not been and will not be registered with the National Securities Registry maintained by the CNBV and may not be offered or sold publicly in Mexico. The notes may be offered or sold privately in Mexico to qualified and institutional investors, pursuant to the exemption contemplated under Article 8 of the Mexican Securities Market Law. As required under the Mexican Securities Market Law, Mexico will give notice to the CNBV of the offering of the notes under the terms set forth herein. Such notice does not certify the solvency of Mexico, the investment quality of the notes, or that the information contained in this pricing supplement, the prospectus supplement or in the prospectus is accurate or complete. Mexico has prepared this pricing supplement and is solely responsible for its content, and the CNBV has not reviewed or authorized such content.

See “Plan of Distribution” in the prospectus supplement for additional restrictions on the offer and sale of the notes.

The terms relating to non-U.S. offerings that appear under “Plan of Distribution” in the prospectus do not apply to the offer and sale of the notes under this pricing supplement.

The net proceeds to Mexico from the sale of the notes will be approximately U.S. $987,755,875, after the deduction of the underwriting discount and Mexico’s share of the expenses in connection with the sale of the notes, which are estimated to be approximately U.S. $114,125.

The managers have agreed to pay for certain expenses in connection with the offering of the notes.

Mexico has agreed to indemnify the managers against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

NOTICE TO CANADIAN RESIDENTS

Resale Restrictions

The distribution of the notes in Canada is being made only on a private placement basis exempt from the requirement that Mexico prepare and file a prospectus with the securities regulatory authorities in each province where trades of the notes are made. Any resale of the notes in Canada must be made under applicable securities laws which will vary depending on the relevant jurisdiction, and which may require resales to be made under available statutory exemptions or under a discretionary exemption granted by the applicable Canadian securities regulatory authority. Purchasers are advised to seek legal advice prior to any resale of the notes.

Representations of Purchasers

By purchasing the notes in Canada and accepting a purchase confirmation a purchaser is representing to Mexico and the dealer from whom the purchase confirmation is received that:

- the purchaser is entitled under applicable provincial securities laws to purchase the notes without the benefit of a prospectus qualified under those securities laws,
- where required by law, that the purchaser is purchasing as principal and not as agent, and
- the purchaser has reviewed the text above under Resale Restrictions.

Rights of Action — Ontario Purchasers Only

Under Ontario securities legislation, a purchaser who purchases a security offered by this pricing supplement during the period of distribution will have a statutory right of action for damages, or while still the owner of the notes, for rescission against Mexico in the event that this pricing supplement contains a misrepresentation. A purchaser will be deemed to have relied on the misrepresentation. The right of action for damages is exercisable not later than the earlier of 180 days from the date the purchaser first had knowledge of the facts giving rise to the cause of action and three years from the date on which payment is made for the notes. The right of action for rescission is exercisable not later than 180 days from the date on which payment is made for the notes. If a purchaser elects to exercise the right of action for rescission, the purchaser will have no right of action for damages against Mexico. In no case will the amount recoverable in any action exceed the price at which the notes were offered to the purchaser and if the purchaser is shown to have purchased the notes with knowledge of the misrepresentation, Mexico will have no liability. In the case of an action for damages, Mexico will not be liable for all or any portion of the damages that are proven to not represent the depreciation in value of the notes as a result of the misrepresentation relied upon. These rights are in addition to, and without derogation from, any other rights or remedies available at law to an Ontario purchaser. The foregoing is a summary of the rights available to an Ontario purchaser. Ontario purchasers should refer to the complete text of the relevant statutory provisions.

Taxation and Eligibility for Investment

Canadian purchasers of the notes should consult their own legal and tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of an investment in the notes in their particular circumstances and about the eligibility of the notes for investment by the purchaser under relevant Canadian legislation.
